PREFACE.

THIS YEAR-BOOK takes the place of the January number of the "Monthly Journal." Its purpose is to give such statistics in regard to the denomination as are of general interest and value.

We have included a small list of organizations which are not strictly Unitarian. Of course, by thus going in a single instance outside of our denominational limits, the way was opened to the admission of an indefinite number of social, philanthropic, or religious institutions which it would be interesting to mention: but the selection has been made on the following grounds,— viz., 1. In a few instances, because of their exceptional importance; 2. In a few instances (e.g., the Freedman's Aid Commission, &c.), because their purely unsectarian basis distinguishes them from other organizations having a similar purpose, that are under some sectarian control, and from a participation in which Unitarians would be excluded; 3. But, in most instances, because, although truly unsectarian in their management and their spirit, they were wholly founded, and are still mainly supported, by Unitarians. It illustrates well the liberal principle which has always characterized the denomination, that, in so many of the enterprises which it has originated and sustained, there is nothing to indicate a sectarian origin or connection; and that any who desire, of whatever name, can be admitted to a share, not only of their privileges, but of their control.

An attempt was made to procure the statistics in regard to the amount of church building, or enlargement, that has been effected within our denomination during the year; but the returns were so incomplete, that the list has been omitted. Enough was ascertained, however, to afford a very gratifying illustration of the prosperity and activity of our parishes. It appears that fifty-one of our societies have, within the last two years, either built new houses of worship, or else have enlarged, or otherwise essentially improved, their old ones; and there are besides several churches now in the process of erection, not included in the above number. Our returns do not enable us to state the amount which has been expended in these various enterprises of church building; but from them have resulted some of the most costly and attractive edifices in the denomination.

As to other signs of activity based on statistics of expenditure and effort a few words of explanation will be found in connection with the list of acknowledgments of contributions to the American Unitarian Association that is given in these pages.

Only one death has occurred during the year among the ministers of our denomination; but the year has been signally marked by the number and the character of those among our laymen whose loss we have been called to mourn. Some of these have held conspicuous positions in our nation, and were among those most widely known and loved. With our sorrow for their departure we mingle our grateful sense of the added testimony to the excellence of our faith, that it can bear such fruit.

Constitution and By-Laws.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God and the building-up of the kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian Churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet, biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President; six Vice-Presidents; three Secretaries, — a Statistical, a Recording, and a Corresponding Secretary; a Treasurer; and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed.

ART VI. — The Council shall have charge, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The Recording Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence, and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday-school, charities, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The Corresponding Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex-officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the Recording Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, &c.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

Society for the Aid of Discharged Convicts, Mass.

Organized 1846.

This Society has existed nearly a quarter of a century, and has quietly done great good. The agent visits the State Prison constantly, and makes himself acquainted especially with those about to be discharged. He is on hand early in the morning, and induces the discharged man to go with him, instead of joining his old associates. Perhaps he has already found a place for the man to go to work. If not, he takes care of him until a place is found. He provides tools, &c., when necessary. Many persons are thus prevented from re-entering on a course of crime.

Massachusetts School for Idiotic and Feeble-minded Youth.

The good effects are felt through life, even by those who continue idiotic. The fundamental idea is, that any organized being has the capacity for improvement and elevation; and that this implies the duty of those most favored to supply the opportunity.

ALTAR AT HOME. A Collection of Prayers for Private and Social Use, written by Eminent Ministers in and near Boston. With appropriate Selections from Scripture, Collects, and Litanies. 16mo, 360 pp. 80 cts.

"From a careful perusal, we have no hesitation in saying that it is a book of uncommon excellence, well adapted to multiply the blessings of private and domestic worship, and ought to find a place in every family." — Christian Inquirer.

ALTAR AT HOME. SECOND SERIES. Containing about one hundred and fifty Prayers, by thirty Clergymen; with appropriate Selections from the Scriptures and the best devotional writers. 16mo, 348 pp. 80 cts.

"We have never seen a manual which seems to us, on the whole, so well adapted to the object for which it has been prepared." — Christian Examiner.

ATHANASIA; or, Foregleams of Immortality. By Rev. EDMUND H. SEARS. 16mo, 350 pp. 80 cts. Morocco, $1.50.

"'Athanasia' will stand as a lovely classic in sacred literature, and a beautiful inspiration of pure devotional feeling. . . . The best test of merit of a book is when we feel we have been made better by reading it; and while 'Athanasia' widens the field of intellectual vision, and makes solid and substantial the bridge from time to eternity, it quickens the conscience in its sense of duty, and softens the heart with a tender and more celestial love." — Christian Inquirer.

BEGINNING AND GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE; or, The Sunday-School Teacher. 16mo, 190 pp. 60 cts.

"It is a book for parents to give their children just leaving home, or staying at home; for ministers to put into the hands of their parishioners; for young persons to obtain, who are seeking to live the true life 'hid with Christ in God;' and for every Sunday-school teacher to take as a chart and an inspiration." — Religious Monthly.

"They exhibit original thought, a high comprehension of religious duty and life, and extraordinary power to control the attention. The style is eminently pure, and, in many respects, the discourses deserve to be considered model sermons." — Zion's Herald.

"We can hardly praise this book too highly. It fully meets the questions which it attempts to discuss. We know of no writer who addresses the religious world from precisely such a standpoint as Mr. Clarke. He is eminently free from all sectarian limitations, and therefore speaks to a much larger audience than most writers upon religious or theological questions. He powerfully appeals to the reason, while he continually addresses the spiritual nature." — Salem Gazette.

"We welcome this book as a rich contribution to our religious literature. The sermons themselves — clear, direct, fresh, and varied — bring religious thought and motive, through the pure medium of one who has felt its power, without one trace of either morbid sentiment or rebellious will. It is the clear judgment of one who knows the doctrine because he does the Father's will. Without being controversial, the discourses are all clearly and peculiarly Unitarian." — Monthly Journal.

"It is not merely a collection of brief notes, explanatory of words and facts in the Common Version; but to these are added succinct yet luminous essays on the most difficult and questioned points in the history and teachings of Christ. . . . We need say nothing of his (the author's) well-known clear logic and beautiful perspicuity of style, his moral glow, his spiritual insight, his nice perception, and quick sympathy with all the peculiar loveliness of the character of Jesus. He understands because he loves; and, loving, sees much that escapes the cold eye of merely intellectual criticism." — Christian Register.

ORTHODOXY: ITS TRUTHS AND ERRORS. By Rev. James Freeman Clarke, D.D. 12mo, 512 pp. $1.25.

"We advise our people, and especially our ministers, to read this book. It is well written and able. It will be to them a rich source of instruction. It is the fairest book, from a Unitarian position, that we have seen for a long time, though abundantly open to criticism." — Congregationalist (Orthodox), Boston.

"The author, a prominent Unitarian clergyman of this city, reviews, in this work, the doctrines of the Orthodox Church, and severally treats of them from the standpoint of James Freeman Clarke: for he makes no pretension that the opinions put forth are other than his own private judgment. It is well worth careful perusal." — Zion's Herald (Methodist), Boston.

"Admirable in intention, kind in temper, candid in spirit, earnest in purpose, this volume occupies a place in theological literature which ought to have been filled before, but which, until now, has remained empty." — The Nation, New York.

"We attempt no analysis of the book; nor shall we enter upon any criticism of its contents. We wish every one of our readers to purchase and read the book itself. If they are not satisfied that their money is well spent, and their time well devoted, and their hearts made better, and their minds enlightened, then we will not recommend another book for the perusal of the public. Our taste and theirs are too widely separated to admit of such a service." — Christian Inquirer.

ILL-STATEMENTS OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE. In Twenty-five Sermons. By Rev. Henry W. Bellows, D.D., Minister of All Soul's Church, New York. 12mo, 434 pp. $1.00.

"The eight years that have passed since the first edition appeared have in no way impaired its freshness and interest. Indeed, some of the subjects treated have, during that interval, been so prominently discussed, that the book may almost be declared to be more timely than when it first appeared.

"Without claiming to be controversial, the volume is a distinct affirmation of the positive doctrines of Unitarianism; and, where it falls in his way, the author clearly illustrates the grounds of his dissent from the more popular theology. But these are, at the same time, truly sermons, and not doctrinal lectures. They are designed to edify, as well as to instruct; and there is not one of them that does not leave a deep religious impression." — Monthly Journal.

"The sermons were first preached in Portsmouth, N.H.; and many there will remember the earnestness with which they were heard, and the profound impression which they made. We cannot doubt that they will be eagerly welcomed by parents, and by all who are interested in the religious welfare of the young. They are printed in an attractive form, and the book is admirably suited for a gift-book to the young." — Monthly Journal.

This work, by the author of "Seven Stormy Sundays," "The Lord's Supper and its Observance," &c., is addressed to the various aspects of sorrow, recognizing the fact that bereavement is not its only occasion.

"Miss Hale has rendered a grateful service to the great family of the afflicted by her admirable 'Service of Sorrow.' We have long wished for just such a book as this to put into the hands of the sorrowing and bereaved, — a book full of comfort, consolation, and healing for those heart-wounds which nothing but religion can cure. When in affliction, most people want something other than sermons, however good they may be; something full of sentiment and sympathy; something which breaks out of a heart of faith and goes direct to the struggling faith in the heart. Both in contents and arrangement, this offering of Miss Hale is admirable, and it will be a welcome gift to hundreds." — Liberal Christian.

Monthly Journal of the American Unitarian Association.

This "Journal" is published at the beginning of every month, and enters upon its ninth volume with the present year. It is edited by the Secretary of the Unitarian Association, and is designed to be a medium of communication between the Association and the denomination that supports it; making known, by the reports of the meetings of the Executive Board, by reports from missionaries and the churches, and by such articles as the editor may prepare, the precise work in which the Association is engaged. Besides this, it is the aim of the "Journal" to afford tracts and articles which may serve to illustrate our form of Faith, or to promote in any way the best interests of our cause.

UNITARIAN TRACTS

PUBLISHED BY

The American Unitarian Association.

THE preparation and distribution of Tracts, illustrating Unitarian doctrines, became, almost immediately after the organization of this Association, one of its most prominent objects; and a very considerable number, written by some of the most distinguished of the earlier ministers of the denomination, were then issued and widely scattered. Many of these earlier Tracts are as well adapted to the present time as to that for which they were written; and they are still issued by the Association, and regarded among the most valuable of our series. Others have been added, however, from time to time, representing the fresh thought, and addressed to the special needs, of the present day. A list is given below of those which have been added during the last two years.

These Tracts are for gratuitous distribution, and will be furnished to any who may apply by letter, or otherwise, to the Rooms of the Association. Especially for missionary use, either in our older or newer communities, great importance is attached to their circulation, and it is believed that much may be done by means of them to remove prejudice, and to extend an acquaintance with the principles of our Faith.

The New Hymn and Tune Book.

This long-expected work will be ready about the 1st of February. The time required in its preparation has been longer than was hoped at first; but less than has been given to other similar works, and no more than has been found needful to secure the best results, both in selection of music and in printing.

The leading aim has been to furnish the very richest possible selection of sacred music within the limits necessarily implied in congregational singing. To this end, arrangements have been made for the use of the best tunes of recent date; while the favorites of longer standing have been, as far as possible, inserted in connection with the words most familiarly associated with them. An eye has been had to making the book a useful and agreeable manual for singing, in the home as well as in the church.

Reference has been had especially to the use of congregational singing; but careful endeavors have been made to secure a collection of Hymns — full, fervent, Christian, and spiritual — adapted, as far as it is possible, to satisfy all the various shades of faith and thought among us, yet not cumbrous in quantity.

The liturgical portion aims to present forms of service so simple, that any layman could, without embarrassment, take the leading part; enriched with free gatherings from the most approved forms of devotion, old and new, and so arranged as to give to the congregation a part in all the prayers: at the same time providing for extemporе prayers, when and so far as that way is preferred.

In the vesper services, a plan is followed that allows of all desirable richness and variety of music, where trained choirs are employed; yet consistent with their use in any of our congregations, where voluntary choirs, or the people themselves, perform the musical part of the service.

Special services for the usual occasions, a brief but carefully studied selection of prayers and collects, and the Psalter, arranged in accordance with the parallelisms of the original, are added, making a liturgy at once simple and complete.

The compilation has been made by a committee chosen by the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association; but the work has been chiefly done by Rev. L. J. Livermore, who has given to it the labor of many months, and has consulted a great many of those most competent to give advice in such an undertaking.

It is confidently believed that the book will be found a very great help in increasing the interest and profit of our religious gatherings; and perhaps, by its general adoption, it may contribute towards a community of feeling, and unity of worship, among the various churches of the denomination.

Contributions to the American Unitarian Association.

In accordance with a vote of the Executive Committee, the period for crediting contributions to the present year's account ended Oct. 31; and the following is a complete list of acknowledgments for the year thus defined.

A few words of explanation may be useful in connection with this list; inasmuch as it will naturally enough be referred to as a measure of the activity of our parishes, and their interest in our missionary work. At first sight it would seem to indicate a falling off of interest, as compared with previous years, the total amount received being very considerably less; and the following statements may, in some degree, modify the unfavorable inference, and prevent the discouragement it might occasion.

1. When we reckon the number of societies that have shown their interest in our work, by contributing to our funds, we find a regular increase from year to year. In 1865, when so large an amount was received, it all came from a hundred and three societies. In 1866, contributions came from a hundred and forty-one societies. In 1867, they have come from a hundred and forty-one, and twenty-five of these are societies that gave nothing in 1866; while of the twenty-five which contributed last year, and not this, nearly every one has sent a letter, expressing a purpose to co-operate, and giving some reason why this present year it had been necessary to omit their contribution.

2. It will be seen, by comparing the following list with the list of acknowledgments for last year, that, in most instances, the amount received is about the same; showing a degree of uniformity which promises a certain regularity in their contributions. The deficiency in the total amount, as compared with last year, can be easily accounted for by the absence from the list of a certain few of our most liberal societies, whose regular active support can be relied on with as much assurance as that of any society in the denomination; but which, this year, have, by peculiar circumstances (generally by having given large sums in other directions), been prevented from contributing.

3. During the past year, unusually large sums have been raised for strictly denominational uses. For example, $30,000 have been given to our Theological School at Meadville. This affected the receipts of this Association, not only because it was contributed by the same individuals from whom its funds are derived, but, perhaps even more seriously, because the raising of that sum made it necessary for us to defer our appeal till that collection had been paid in. But for this, an attempt would have been made immediately after the meeting of the National Conference, at which it was so heartily voted to raise $100,000, and when every thing favored a liberal contribution.

Besides this endowment of Meadville, there have been other denominational enterprises for which large sums have been secured; and we could readily record enough to make (if added to our receipts) the full $100,000 given by our parishes during the year for strictly denominational objects.

We have made these explanations, not for the purpose of glorifying the liberality of our people, — for the amount seems pitiably small when compared with the grandeur of our opportunity, and the abundance of the means with which God has blessed our people; — but we have deemed it right to show, that the record is not discouraging, in view of future expectations.

Valuable New Books published by Ticknor & Fields.

The Life of Josiah Quincy. By his son, EDMUND QUINCY. 1 vol. Large 12mo. With two Portraits engraved on steel. $3.00.

"Mr. Edmund Quincy may well challenge the gratitude of the public for the deeply interesting volume with which he has enriched our biographical literature." — George Ripley in New York Tribune.

Longfellow's Translation of the Divine Comedy of Dante. In Three Volumes: I., Inferno; II., Purgatorio; III., Paradiso. Morocco cloth, bevelled boards, gilt top. $5.00 a volume.

"It is wonderful to see with what lucid force the traits of Dante are mirrored in Mr. Longfellow's translation. His lines partake of the pointed brevity of the original. Not a superfluous word encumbers their stately march. No liberties are taken with thought or construction, but it is Dante himself who speaks, as if in the majestic strains of his own Tuscan." — New York Tribune.

Dante's New Life (Vita Nuova). Translated, with Notes and Essays, by CHARLES ELIOT NORTON. 1 vol., uniform with Longfellow's Dante. $5.00.

"The New Life should always be found side by side with the Divine Comedy, on which it is a better commentary than most of the works that have been written with the express purpose of elucidating the mysteries of that poem." — New York Times.

Prayers of the Ages. Compiled by CAROLINE S. WHITMARSH. 1 vol. 16mo. Tinted paper, beveled boards, gilt top. $2.50.

"This volume has been prepared on the same general principles that controlled in the selections for 'Hymns of the Ages,' — the three volumes of which have met a cordial welcome in the religious world. The aim of the volume is, in the words of the compiler, 'to show how the great healers and helpers of the world have prayed.'"

Emerson's May-Day. $2.00.

"Filled with the fragrance of flowers, the rustle of leaves, the breath of Spring, sweetened by contact with myriads of blossoms, the song of birds, the chirp of insects, and the myriad voices that greet the opening year." — Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Romance of the Republic. By Mrs. L. MARIA CHILD. 1 vol. 16mo. $2.00.

"The friends and admirers of Mrs. Child are likely to miss, in the ingenious and generous novel before us, none of the finer or endearing qualities of heart or brain which, during a literary lifetime of little less than half a century, have made them her friends and admirers." — The Nation.

"For originality, force, clearness of diction, close contact with the minds and hearts of men, and impressive eloquence, these discourses are acknowledged to stand in the very front rank of modern pulpit oratory." — Prof. H. B. Smith, in Hours at Home.

A HAND-BOOK OF LATIN POETRY. Price, $3.00.

SELECTIONS FROM OVID AND VIRGIL. Price, $2.00.

Edited by Messrs. Hanson and Rolfe.

The idea of this series is original and unique. Mr. Hanson was the first to combine in one volume all the Latin Prose requisite to a thorough preparation for any of our Colleges, with references to the two grammars most in use, critical and explanatory notes, and a vocabulary; thus furnishing the student a work more complete and convenient than ever existed before.

In the Hand-Book of Poetry, Messrs. Hanson & Rolfe have carried out and completed the plan: and the two volumes now comprise all the Latin necessary to be read in preparing for a collegiate course, and all that is needed to complete the classical education of those students who terminate their studies in our High Schools and Academies.

Circulars, containing full descriptions, with notices and testimonials from eminent teachers in all parts of the country, will be furnished on application. Copies for examination will be supplied at one-half the advertised price, with twenty-five cents additional for postage.

MERRY'S MUSEUM

An Illustrated Magazine for Boys and Girls.

MR. FULLER takes pleasure in announcing that he has purchased "MERRY'S MUSEUM," the oldest Monthly Magazine for young folks, in the United States; and that with the issue of the January, 1868, number, it appears Enlarged, Improved, and Regenerated; with a new Editor, new Contributors, new Articles, new Engravings, new Features, and in a New Dress.

It enters on its TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR with a larger circulation, with fresher life, with better prospects, and with abler pens and more picturesque pencils, to vivify and adorn it, than it has ever known since more than a generation ago, when it first delighted the boys and girls of that day with its lively and amusing Sketches and its ingenious Puzzles.

Contributions are promised from eminent and popular writers, of which due announcement will be made. In short, no pains and no expense will be spared to make it the most attractive family Magazine published in America. No number will contain a line that any parent would not wish his children to read, or that will not have a tendency to amuse, or instruct, or inform the mind, and to create a healthy taste for pure and ennobling literature.

"MERRY'S MUSEUM" will always be a safe, instructive, and entertaining companion for the fireside. The January number (a specimen of the style of the new series) is now ready, and can be bought at any Bookstore, or will be sent by mail on receipt of twelve cents. See it and examine it, before subscribing for others. Single subscriptions, one year in advance, $1.50. Special terms to clubs. Original contributions solicited.

AGENTS. — One thousand good canvassers, male and female, are wanted to obtain subscribers for "MERRY'S MUSEUM." Specimen numbers and circulars furnished on application. For terms, which are very liberal, address,

THE CHRISTIAN EXAMINER.

Prospectus.

With the year 1866, THE CHRISTIAN EXAMINER begins a new series, under a new Editorial direction, and is to be published in New York. It hopes to preserve and increase whatever of scholarly and literary excellence has commended its past career; but it now aims to assume a certain Denominational character which it has of late years disclaimed.

THE CHRISTIAN EXAMINER desires to represent the breadth of that Christian Liberty of Thought and Utterance which is now happily accepted as the established duty and policy of the Unitarian Denomination. It will afford impartial opportunity for intelligent, serious, and reverential discussion of questions at issue in the different schools of thought in our own Body; adopting, in justice to all and for the protection of all, the general usage of publishing the names of its Contributors attached to their Articles.

We invite contributions from all quarters, reserving those absolute rights of selection, rejection, and revision, which we hold essential to the conduct of every public Journal.

Its aim will be to discuss all such matters as may come before it, in a spirit both independent and impartial; to address the educated intelligence of the Nation from the point of view of Liberal Christianity and enlightened Conscience; and to devote the best ability at its command to the cause of pure Religion, free Government, Civilization, and Social Justice.

TERMS. — THE CHRISTIAN EXAMINER is published once in two months, beginning with January of each year, at five dollars per annum, payable in advance. Single numbers, one dollar each.

The EXAMINER will be sent by mail, to any part of the United States, free of postage, on the remittance of a year's subscription strictly in advance; that is, on or before the issue of the number with which a subscription begins, or at the time of subscribing.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Monthly Religious Magazine,

For 1868.

REV. EDMUND H. SEARS AND REV. RUFUS ELLIS,

EDITORS.

The Proprietor would inform the subcribers and friends of this Magazine, that it will be continued in charge of the present able Editors, and with the aid of the old and some new contributors the work will be conducted on the same plan as the past year, which we have reason to believe, from the increase in our subscription list, has been generally satisfactory and acceptable to our readers.

First, a Leading Article written expressly for this Journal, expressing the results of the highest Christian thought, to which the Periodical is pledged.

Second, a Sermon, with a variety of short articles in prose and poetry of a religious and practical character, which may meet the wants of families, — the elder and the younger members of the household, — and be of service in the work of Christian training, and useful to Sunday-School Teachers.

Third, an Article entitled "The Spirit of the Religious Press," to contain a brief summary of the religious periodical literature of all denominations, with other matters of general interest selected from both Foreign and American papers and magazines.

Fourth, the Random Readings and Literary Notices will be continued as heretofore.

We shall endeavor to make the Monthly what it was intended and will aim to be, — an instructive and interesting Religious Magazine for family reading.

TERMS.

The Magazine will be issued on the first of every month, in numbers of eighty pages each, large Royal Octavo, making two volumes a year of nearly 500 pages each, or about 1000 pages the year, with Title pages and Index, handsomely printed on fine paper and good type.

Price $5.00 a year. $2.50 half year. Single numbers 50 cents.

The Christian Register,

HAVING attained, during the past two years, a largely increased circulation through all parts of the country, will begin the new year in a condition of increased attractiveness and usefulness. Its various departments, religious and secular, will be materially improved.

THE CHRISTIAN REGISTER,

The oldest Unitarian journal in the country, published at the fountain-head of Liberal Christianity, is, by virtue of its position, enabled to present its readers every week with the earliest and fullest record of opinions and events relating to the progress and position of the denomination. It aims to be a leading American Journal of Religion and Education, the faithful representative of UNITARIAN CHRISTIANITY, the advocate and exponent of CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, HUMAN PROGRESS, AND HUMAN EQUALITY.

Among its contributors, the REGISTER numbers nearly all the distinguished writers of the Unitarian denomination.

The REGISTER, while seeking faithfully to present both the claims and the duties of Liberal Christianity, will also endeavor to quicken the spiritual nature of its readers, and lead them to a life of personal consecration and practical religion.

The best Foreign and Home Correspondents will be secured; and employing our own Special Reporters, the fullest and earliest information concerning all matters of interest will always be given.

The department of Family Reading will be arranged with special care; and a full and complete secular summary of the week, including carefully corrected market reports, will be added.

Another feature of the Register is a sermon every week from some minister of the liberal faith. Among these will be the entire course preached during this winter in the Boston Theatre. These weekly discourses will form a volume of valuable reading, worth more than the price of the annual subscription.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

It has been published for more than twenty years, and is now enlarged. It is issued giving fifty-two numbers and over THREE THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading matter, yearly.

It is a work which commends itself to every one who has a taste for the best literature of the Magazines and Reviews, or who cares to keep up with the events of the time.

It contains the best Reviews, Criticisms, Stories, Poetry; Literary, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Essays, — from the whole body of English Periodical Literature, — making 4 vols. a year, of immediate interest, and solid, permanent value.

EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES.

From the late President of the United States, John Quincy Adams. — "Of all the periodical journals devoted to literature and science, which abound in Europe and this country, THE LIVING AGE has appeared to me the most useful."

From Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, May, 1867. — "Were I, in view of all the competitors now in the field, to choose, I should undoubtedly choose THE LIVING AGE. There is not, in any library that I know of, so much instructive and entertaining reading in the same number of volumes."

From the New-York Times. — "The taste, judgment, and wise tact displayed in the selection of articles, are above all praise, because they have never been equalled."

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican. — "We can do those among our readers who love sound and pure literature no better service than by referring them to this sterling weekly. It is decidedly the best magazine of its class published in the United States, if not in the world."

From the Boston Post. — "We venture to say that in no other form can a work of similar character be found of equal merit, or at so moderate a price."

From the Church Union, New York, Aug. 10, 1867. — "Its editorial discrimination is such as ever to afford its readers an entertaining résumé of the best current European magazine literature, and so complete as to satisfy them of their having no need to resort to its original sources. In this regard, we deem it the best issue of its kind extant."

From the New-York Independent. — "No one can read, from week to week, the selections brought before him in THE LIVING AGE, without becoming conscious of a quickening of his own faculties, and an enlargement of his mental horizon. Few private libraries, of course, can now secure the back volumes, sets of which are limited and costly. But public libraries in towns and villages ought, if possible, to be furnished with such a treasury of good reading; and individuals may begin as subscribers for the new series, and thus keep pace in future with the age in which they live."

From the Illinois State Journal, Aug. 3, 1867. — "It has more real solid worth, more useful information, than any similar publication we know of. The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."

From the New-York Home Journal, June 12, 1867. — "LITTELL'S LIVING AGE, long distinguished as a pioneer in the republication of the choicest foreign periodical literature, still holds the foremost rank among works of its class. Its standard of selections is a high one; and its contents are not only of interest at the present moment, but possess an enduring value. Its representation of the foreign field of periodical literature is ample and comprehensive; and it combines the tasteful and erudite, the romantic and practical, the social and scholarly, the grave and gay, with a skill which is nowhere surpassed, and which is admirably suited to please the cultivated reader."

THE RADICAL:

A Monthly Magazine, devoted to Religion.

EDITED BY

S. H. MORSE.

This magazine has taken its place among the ablest of the country. Its broad and liberal spirit has won the co-operation of the best minds. It furnishes a medium for the freest expression of thought on the various religious questions that interest earnest men and women in every community. It appeals to their best thought, above their prejudices, above party or sectarian ties. Not having to consult these poor interests, it can consistently enforce the lessons of intellectual freedom and self-dependence. Confiding more in the natural force of IDEAS for the progress and melioration of society than in the offices of the best disposed institutions; in the Spirit of Liberty steadily burning in the soul of man, rather than in the wisest prescriptions of political or ecclesiastical art; the ambition is to fortify individuals in their trust of spiritual laws, and in unwavering reliance on the protections of heroic character. Among those who contribute articles, are,—

NOTICE.

"THE RADICAL" for January will contain articles by Dr. C. A. Bartol, O. B. Frothingham, D. A. Wasson, Everett Finley, M. H. Doolittle, and others. Dr. Bartol's paper is on "THE IDEA OF GOD," being an Essay he recently read by invitation before the "Free Religious Club." Mr Frothingham's closes a series of five articles on "THE TWO RELIGIONS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT," which have appeared in the present volume of the "Radical." They form a remarkable treatise of the subject, and should be universally read.

The chapters on "PROGRESS," translated for the "Radical" from the celebrated work by M. ABOUT, are worthy of careful study.

SANBORN'S PATENT.

THE BEST SAFE IN THE WORLD.

IT IS THE BEST LOOKING SAFE MADE IN THE EAST.

☞ It has been more severely tried than any other, and never failed.

The special excellence of this Safe consists in a lining of copper vessels containing water, between the book-case and the walls, whereby, in case of fire, steam is generated, which carries out the heat as it comes in; and thus protects the contents through the longest and severest fires that ever occur. It is secure against injury from freezing, from falling, or other accidents. It is thoroughly made, and furnished with the best burglar-proof lock.

The vessels are sealed, so that the water cannot evaporate to dampen the Safe. The solder that closes the opening, melts below boiling heat, to let off the steam. "Return Pipes" prevent the water from spilling, in case the Safe overturns when burning. It is entirely dry in use; never needs a new supply of water; is very strong, and will resist several times as much fire as ordinary Safes.

☞ The Price is about the same as that of other first-class Safes.

All persons needing Fire proof Safes, should send for a pamphlet, and learn all about the Steam Safe, before purchasing.
